1959 IVIAN

EMMERICH MANUAL TRAINING HIGH SCHOOL
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Manual

Manualites are busy from morning till night during the school year, keeping up with full schedules "around the clock." This year's clock has been a confusing one, however, because the school has been on Central Standard Time and the city on Daylight Saving Time, making school clocks and home clocks disagree. We arrived at school at 7 o'clock, having left home at 7:30. In spite of the time difference, the same busy schedule of activities had to be sandwiched into the same number of waking hours.

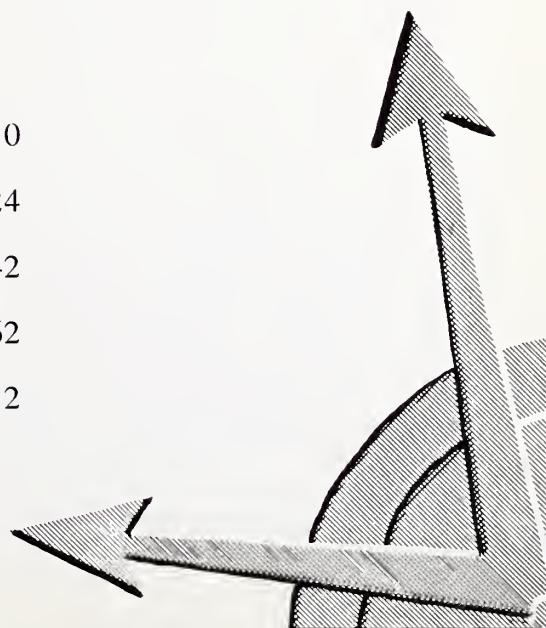

A ninth period was added to Manual's school day to allow for our growing population; and an unofficial tenth period provided for conferences, meetings, rehearsals, and parties. Many evenings found the building alight with public performances, dances, or parent-group activities.

School Day Begins

Hoisting of the flag by the ROTC Color Guard marks the beginning of each day. Pupils pour into the building and ready themselves for classes as Radio Station WMHS broadcasts a "Good Morning" with the daily before-school show. Usually this comes from the radio room on the second floor; but occasionally it's a "Man on the Street" interview program. Manager Arnold Dale and Chief Engineer Chuck Huppert set up a microphone in the hall or, if the weather permits, out of doors. Station signs off just in time for all participants to make first-hour classes.

Chuck Huppert mans controls as Steve Matthews broadcasts.

We Plan Courses from a Wide Curriculum

Freshmen John Justice and Ronnie Sawyer put finishing touches to their Christmas angel constructed in Art I.

Kathleen Ludeman and Linda Schroeder find hands helpful while practicing conversing in French, which was newly added to our curriculum this year.

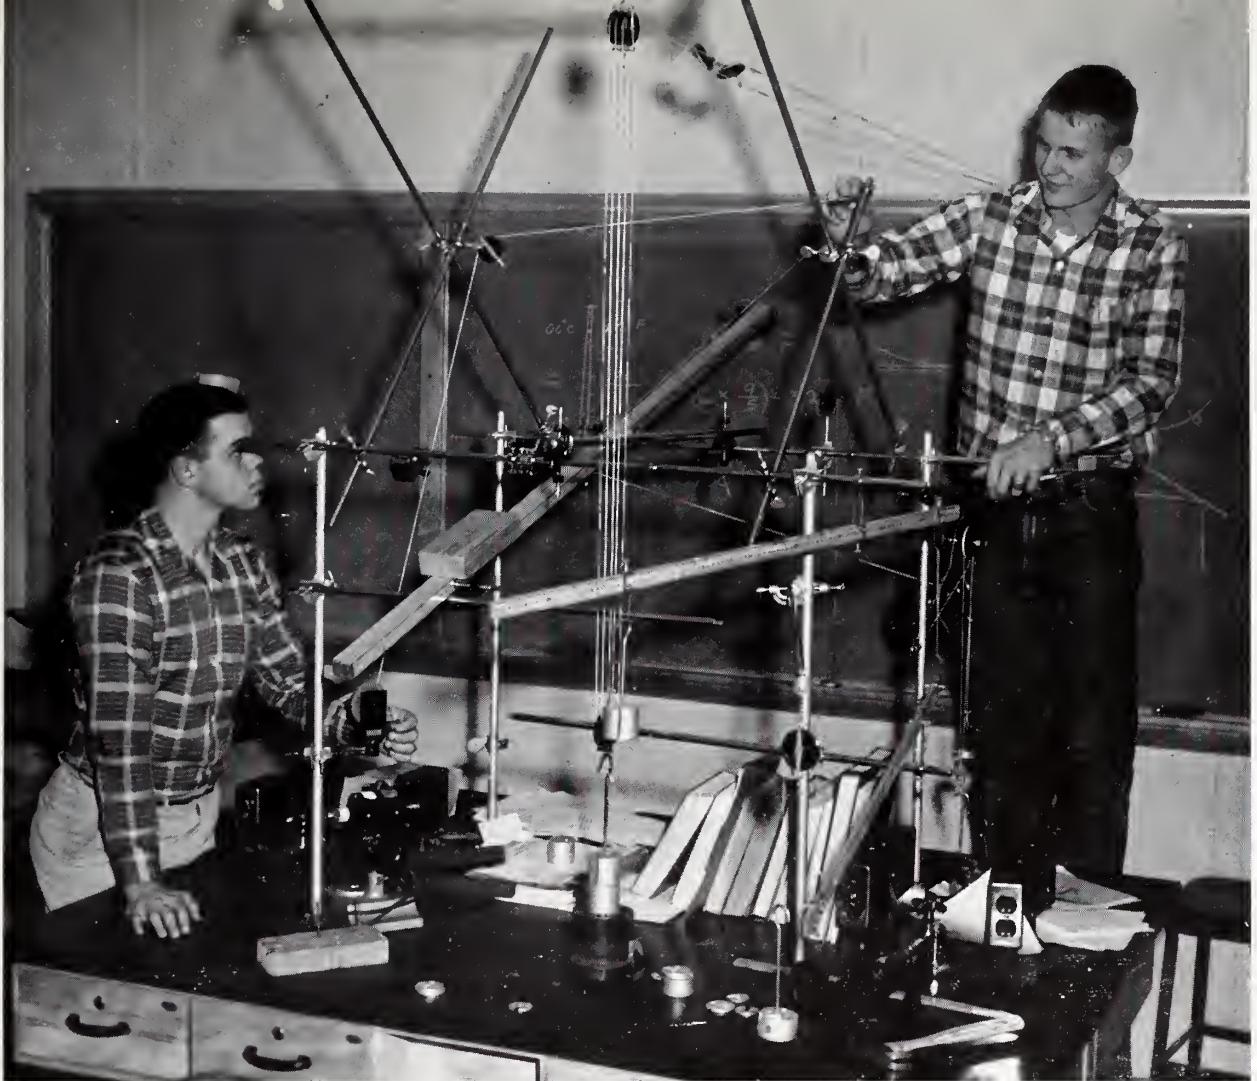

The classes here at Manual teach students many and varied subjects, preparing them with a background for college or the vocation of their choice.

The school is equipped to instruct and give valuable knowledge to pupils who wish to take advantage of the opportunity. With the assistance of teachers and counselors, each Manualite may work out a four-year program which best suits his needs, interests, and abilities. If his goal is college, he plans his curriculum to meet college requirements; or he may prepare himself for a vocation or business in one of our many special departments.

This year, Manual has added to its ever-growing curriculum three new subjects—French, Analytical Geometry, and Etymology.

In U. S. History class, Jim Privette, as King James I of England, dramatizes the awarding of charters for American colonies to Janet Carnes and Leroy Bell.

Not a Chinese puzzle but a Physics test constructed by Mr. Robert Canner and Mr. Wayne Dunbar. Seniors Marvin Hyatt and Ray Schultz check the complicated structure to prove the basic Physics theories it demonstrates.

Office Training Class gives business majors practical "office experience." Seniors Eva Jones, Barbara Hale, and Merrilyn Lindley are running off cards for another department on the Ditto machine.

In Mrs. Janice Cummer's Clothing class, sophomore Sherry Hoffmeister "sews a fine seam" on one of the late model electric machines. Laboratories also have treadle-operated models so pupils may learn to use both.

Each shop room has a "washing fountain" where several boys can "wash-up" at once to prepare for next classes.

Shop pupils get practical experience by actually doing jobs for Manual and Manualites. In Auto Shop boys may work on their own cars, but also do mechanical repairs on cars belonging to faculty members and other students.

In Mechanical Drawing, advanced draftsmen have drawn plans for houses and other structures that have actually been built. And our "apprentice" printers make tickets and programs for Manual organizations, as well as many forms used by the main office.

Electricians repair radios and TV sets in their Shop, and Machine Shop boys learn to use precision equipment in preparation for jobs as tool and die makers. This year, boys in Metal Shop built coat racks for use in the gym check rooms during basketball season.

We Develop Skills For Future Success

Not only does our curriculum prepare students for college and future professions, but it also turns out tomorrow's mechanics, carpenters, designers, electricians, and printers. With a shop program consisting of such courses as mechanical drawing, electronics, and general, machine, auto, wood, and print shops, Manualites are becoming well equipped for a future in one of these vocations.

With a rising enrollment in shop courses, many students are discovering that the practical knowledge gained in these classes will make them general handy men and save them money since they can make their own repairs without the costly services of a professional mechanic or electrician.

Larry Ulrey and Charles Murray, Advanced Auto Shop pupils, check the brake lines on a faculty car.

Drawing a bleacher layout, to use in planning reserve seating for basketball games, are Bob Brock, Mr. John Edwards, and Alan Foster in Mechanical Drawing class.

Ronald Reevers feeds the press as Vern Hunter and Robert Duncan assist with the printing of Outside Reading Record cards for the English Department.

In Electric Shop, Jim Atkins works intently on a radio he is assembling as Sam Monroe stands by to lend a hand with the soldering iron.

Boys in Wood Shop work up from small items, like the one Ronnie Rexrode is cutting, to making articles of furniture for their own use or for gifts.

All-School Assembly Programs Add Color,

Typical Home Room scene on Friday is faces buried deep in Boosters. Freshmen in Room 130 won The Ivian's "treat" by going over the top in Ivian sales.

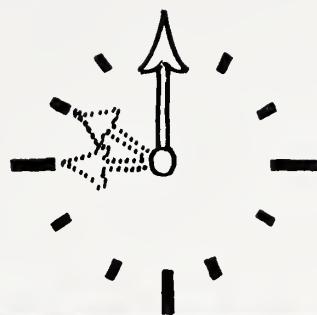

Home Room Period marks the first break in Manual's busy day. All of us attend Home Room for the recording of official attendance, filling out school record forms, and taking care of any other school routine matters that require attention. Public Address announcements at this time give information about activities going on that are of interest to all and notify us of club meetings and rehearsals. Occasionally, skits are broadcast after announcements by clubs or classes to publicize activities or celebrate special days. It is during Home Room time that the Ivian agents sell subscriptions, and ticket sales are promoted. Friday is Booster day, and agents distribute copies of The Booster to all pupils and faculty members. Seniors attend Home Room in the Cafeteria, so they are all together once each day, making it possible to have call meetings and special announcements pertaining to them only.

As part of The Ivian's annual sales campaign, an auditorium skit, patterned after the TV show "I've Got A Secret," gave a preview of the yearbook's contents.

Variety to Our Education

Interspersed throughout the year are auditorium programs of a cultural, educational, and entertaining nature. Because there are so many of us, the "auds" must be divided into two sessions, which come just before and after home-room period. Our "aud" programs kicked off with the annual Ivian show, featuring an "I've-Got-A-Secret" skit with a panel of experts and guests. Students discovered in the next "aud" that Manual is teeming with talent. Manualites danced, sang, tumbled, and joked to the delight of the audience in the Teepee Talent Parade. Other programs included a concert by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, two science shows demonstrating the latest techniques in the field of science, and the all-school Christmas program by the Music Department. When we get together for a pep session, everyone goes to the gym for one program as we did for the big Sectional send-off.

Senior Anne Norcross told us of her visit to the U.N. as a member of the team from Indianapolis schools.

Linda Fritche, Steve Wright, Sandy White, Georgann Coldren, Merrilyn Lindley, Pat Stacy, and John Stafford broadcast a P.A. skit for Home Rooms.

Conductor Izler Solomon and the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra presented an hour-long concert for us.

Cadet Lt. Col. Gerald Peats and Honorary Lt. Col. June Kistler greet Gen. Theodore S. Riggs, who visited Manual in October on a routine inspection tour.

ROTC Cadets Serve, Parade For Manual

Our ROTC grew so much this year that by second semester we were entitled to a full colonel as cadet commander. All cadets are in uniform on Thursday and Friday, and the six Honorary Cadets rotate the Friday duty of personal inspection of all "soldiers." Uniformed cadets are on duty at all evening events at Manual, serving as guards, guides, and messengers. Our rifle team proved to be real sharpshooters, winning second place in city competition. Other special ROTC groups are the History Club and the Drill Team. High spot of the year was the annual Military Ball on March 13. From a field of 14 candidates, a Queen of the Ball was chosen—Joan Scholl.

Pfc. Phillip Bell, "General's Aide," marches with the Colonels in the Veteran's Day Parade. ROTC's from all city high schools participated in the colorful event.

Senior Home Room takes on a party air on Senior Day because seniors are dressed up for the occasion, each wearing an Arm Band in senior colors Red and White.

Seniors Strut, Portray Faculty on 'Big' Days

Felt arm bands, bearing a silk-screened design in class colors, have for 50 years been senior insignia on the traditional Senior Day. Designed this year by Vaughn Hickman, those for the class of '59 were Red and White. This is always a dress-up day for seniors. Class officers were installed during Home Room; and a fun session in the Cafeteria, including dancing and floor show by talented members of the class, climaxed the "big" day.

During National Education Week, our second Student-Teacher Turn-About Day found selected seniors filling the roles of administrators, teachers, and other staff workers. Each student spent the day with his counterpart for a briefing on the duties of the job. The day ended with a Punch Party in the Alumni Room to which faculty members brought their "aides." This annual project gives seniors a view of teaching from the other side of the desk.

Vasco Walton, Ronnie Susemichel, Larry Henn, and Bob Duncan make up a quartet for Senior Day entertainment.

Turn-About-Day Principal Keith Nave discusses a "mutual" problem with Principal C. Edgar Stahl. Vice-principal Bill Hair and Dean Linda Fritsche are kibitzers.

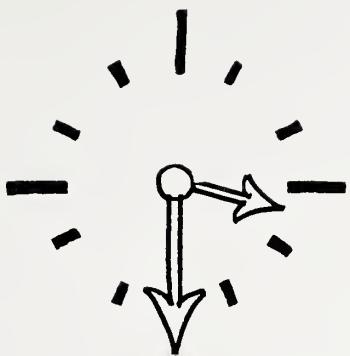

Speakers, attending a coffee hour, were served by a Girls Foods Class. Below, Don Talent and Jerry Yates, Boys Foods, serve lunch to guests in the Cafeteria.

56 Speakers Make Opportunity Knock

Men and women from Indiana Businesses, Industries, Colleges, and Universities were present at Manual's Opportunity Day on January 14. This is an annual career day for all students to help us choose our colleges and vocations. Careful plans were made for this day by the teachers and guests. It gives us the opportunity to investigate businesses and schools for our future plans. Many clubs of Indianapolis furnished the speakers. Some of the Clubs were Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, Optimist, Business and Professional Women, Altrusa, and Soroptimist Service Clubs. The business personnel gave talks on such topics as the nature of the work, job development and opportunities, advantages and disadvantages. During the afternoon, the guests were served a luncheon by Boys Foods Classes and were taken on tours of the building and campus. Opportunity Day is a day which students at Manual look forward to each year.

Mr. Victor McDowell and students Don Radish and Allen Ross accept an automatic steering unit from Mr. Ralph Cochran, Ford Motor Company, on Opportunity Day.

After School Hours Fill with Activities

When 3:15 comes and classes are over, many of us find the most interesting part of the day just beginning. Conference period means club meetings, rehearsals, and intramural sports. Teachers are available to give extra help and counsel. Music rings from the south wing, and athletic teams practice in the gym or on field. Clicking typewriters in The Booster office mean busy staffers are getting another issue to press. This is the time of day that rounds out our programs.

Visiting senior Jerry McClain is shown The Booster layout by Editor-in-Chief June Kistler and staff members Georgann Coldren, Carolyn Ibaugh, Jim Schulz, Carol Hoeping, and Sara Broz.

Mr. Ben Parke, math instructor, smiles his approval as Richard Rea explains a solid geometry problem to Charles Mercer, Karen Duke, and Oma Birl during the 10th-hour conference period.

Mrs. Gertrude Hopper, Social Service, serves punch at a guest-meeting tea in the Alumni Room after school. Members of the FTA, Muriel Huckaby, Sandra Bredy, and Gail Ray, assist.

Attendants Louise Holle, Karen McDonnell, Sharon Lahrman, and Phyllis Brehob, and Papoose Christine Schofield smile congratulations to new Queen Sonja Keating.

Homecoming Spectacular Welcomes Grads

One of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds ever was on hand at Delavan Smith Field for the annual Homecoming game, October 3. This crowd also witnessed exciting performances by each team. During the gala half-time ceremonies, the candidates were escorted around the field in colorfully decorated convertibles. Ron Miller and Sonja Keating were announced King and Queen Manual VI by Principal C. Edgar Stahl and crowned by last year's royalty, Paul Frogge and Betty Shaner. This year the crown bearers were Christine Schofield and Jim Hamner, attired in Redskin costumes. An "Alumni Band" was a new attraction along with the usual snappy routines by our own band.

Papoose Jim Hamner and Candidates Norman Weddle, Bill Hair, Dave Richards, Max Moneyhan, and Ron Miller anxiously wait as Principal Stahl announces the new King.

Wreathed in smiles, Homecoming King and Queen, Ron Miller and Sonja Keating, wave enthusiastically to the crowd, as they circle the field in a blue convertible.

Fifth Kiwanis Trophy Proves Band 'Tops'

Manual's Marching Redskins did it again! For the fifth consecutive year, the Redskin Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. William D. Kleyla, won the Kiwanis "Best Band" award for the most outstanding marching band in Indianapolis. The trophy was presented at the Downtown Kiwanis Club's fifth annual city high school football awards banquet. Each year the Kiwanis Club awards a trophy to a city high school band for having presented the best half-time shows at its football games. Manual's band has won the award every year since Kiwanis started presenting it. Judges consider "discipline, on the field and in the stands, playing—tone, pitch, school song; marching, special maneuvers, entertainment value, general appearance, and originality" in making their decision.

"Careful! That's my tail you're sewing," cautions Steve Matthews, as Sharon Lahrman finishes his costume for the Manual-Shorridge football game.

Decked out in crimson and blue uniforms, Manual's Marching Band, directed by Mr. William Kleyla, form a block "M" as they perfect a marching routine.

Harold Post, played by Steve Goad, is borne in triumph onto the stage after making his successful parachute jump.

'Up in the Air' Go Musicians for Operetta

Manual's Choir presented its annual operetta "Up in the Air" by Geoffrey Morgan, November 21. The story revolves around Harold Post, a timid young man, played by Steve Goad, who is in love with Betty Burbank, Rita Verhines. However, Betty's father is ambitious for her to marry a "strong and fearless man." Consequently, Harold's conniving friend, Jim Carter, played by J Winckelbach, devises a plan to make Harold look brave. His scheme to have a stunt man make a parachute jump for Harold fails, and Harold is forced to make the parachute jump himself. Harold comes through with flying colors, and Mr. Burbank gives him Betty's hand in marriage.

Jon Morris sings "Heart of a Crimson Rose" to his sweetheart, Becky Koenig, in "Up in the Air."

Jon Morris, Becky Koenig, J Winckelbach, Rita Verhines, and Steve Goad sang the leading roles in the operetta, "Up in the Air." This musical provided good solo parts for several hopefuls.

Mask, Wig Stages Ever-Popular 'Our Town'

Mask and Wig, Manual's dramatic club, presented "Our Town" on December 10. The play takes place in a small town in New Hampshire called "Grovers Corners." The history of the town and the lives of some of its most prominent citizens carry the theme "Life" in the play by Thornton Wilder. Tom Fink was the Stage Manager, and Janis Small and Wayne Mullen played Emily Webb and George Gibbs. Other leads were portrayed by Charles Shade, Evelyn Lowe, Norva Lintecum, and James Whitham. Mrs. Mildred Haskens, club sponsor, directed the play.

A second major production, "I Remember Mama," came on April 10. All ticket holders attended a dance in the Cafeteria after the performance. Cast as Katrina, the girl narrating the play, was Merrilyn Lindley. The other main characters were portrayed by Norva Lintecum, Larry Heacox, Tom Fink, Betty Green, Wayne Mullen, and Paula Williams.

Simon Stimson, portrayed by Jim Jones, as he conducts choir practice, says, "Soft! Get it out of your heads that music's only good when it's loud."

Emily, played by Janis Small, makes her way from the group of funeral mourners standing in the rain to her grave beside her mother-in-law (Evelyn Lowe).

Redskin Revue Runs Gamut from Nursery

Hillbilly intermission act, featuring Sonja Keating, Judy Schoenherr, Linda Loeper, and Sharon Lahrman, captured the trophy for best comedy team.

Rollicking with music and mirth, the 1959 Redskin Revue, 30th annual student vaudeville, made its debut, March 19th for a two-night stand and played before large, enthusiastic audiences. Some 200 Manualites joined forces to produce four big acts which featured "South of the Border" by Mary Heichelbech and Charlotte McMurry; "Mother Goose of '59" by Donna Monroe and Becky Mitchell; "Dogface Soldier" by Carney Likens and Steve Matthews; and "On Stage" by Sharron and Jim Jones.

Teeming with talent, participants in the revue danced mamboes and rock 'n rolls, vocalized in solos and choruses, and played solo and combo numbers. Manual's twelve-piece dance band provided the musical background for 37 numbers in the four acts from the orchestra pit. Seniors Dennis Jackson and Jackie Goad, student chairmen of the Redskin Revue, emceed the production. Winning poster design for the Revue belonged to Jackie Buzzaird while the program cover was designed by Marjorie Viehe.

Chorus line from "On Stage" includes Bonnie Spreen, Mary Hawthorne, Barbara Emerich, Carla Riegel, Tommy Sue Janke, Sharon Jones, Carol Hoeping, Georgia Shaner, Sharon Scholl, Judy Crouch. Decked out in bright green costumes with top hats and canes, the girls tapped out a snappy routine.

Rhymes, TV Show to Army Life, Ol' Mexico

A small, but mighty Sergeant, J Winckelbach, shapes up his mirth-making privates, Ron Susemichel, Bob Walker, Larry Henn, Jon Morris, Ed Gordon, Roger McVay, Dennis Jackson, Agris Petersons, for inspection in comedy act "Dogface Soldier." Individual awards went to Jon Morris, best performer, and Bob Walker, best comedian.

Three little kittens, Becky Mitchell, Marilyn Burge, and Mary Lou Agan, swinging their pink-bowed tails, starred in "Mother Goose of '59." Modernization of the familiar Mother Goose characters, including Jack and Jill, Little Bo Peep, and King Cole's Combo, into Rock 'n Roll hepcats brought the best-act trophy to the cast.

"South of the Border" featured a dashing matador, Roscoe Sturgeon, and ferocious bull, Jean Rowan, whose performance was greeted with cheers of "olé" by Mexican senors and señoritas. Also making appearances in the act were Zorro and his followers, Mexican Hat and Mambo dancers, and a Mexican guitarist.

We Help P-TA, Dads Club Meet Budgets

Many of our parents who are active in the P-TA get busily involved in the big money making project in the spring. Last year called the "Hit Parade," it is an evening of lots of fun for young and old, and it adds considerably to the organization's coffers. The annual features are the popularity contest, supper in the cafeteria, and many games and booths, topped off with a vaudeville show.

Activities of the Dads Club include their concession stands at Delavan Smith Field during football season, and in the gym at basketball time. On February 14 an Italian Spaghetti Supper, prepared by Italian cooks from real Italian recipes, was a big hit with the more than 500 persons who enthusiastically attended.

Funds from these activities are used for various school needs. Our snappy band uniforms were purchased by these organizations, and our Redskin Bus was furnished by the P-TA. Funds are also provided to help students attend conventions and institutes.

Dads dished up the spaghetti for the many folks attending the "real" Italian Spaghetti Supper. Enjoying their meal is the Lindley family.

Shall We Dance?

We Manualites like to dance. Starting off the 1958-59 season was "The Pigskin Prom," honoring our "City Champs." The annual "Pic Parade" featuring the crowning of King Ivan and Queen Ann, gave us a chance to exchange "chums." Freshmen found old Santa guest of honor at the Freshman Christmas Dance. Starting the second semester off right was the Cherry Tree Hop, sponsored by Girls Glee Club. Throughout the basketball season, Student Affairs Board promoted after-game dances. The ROTC's Military Ball was March 13. Dances in the Cafeteria on both Junior Day and Senior Day provided perfect endings to "perfect days." The Junior Prom was May 1 at Atherton Center, Butler University, and the Senior Prom will end formal activities for the Class of '59. The Ivian traditionally makes its debut at the John Henry Hop. Not much dancing is done at this dance because everyone is busy autographing yearbooks.

Organizations 'Round The Clock

'Round the clock and 'round the year our co-curricular activities keep us busy and help us gain experience in leadership and responsibility. Club meetings, rehearsals, and social functions fill conference periods on many days; and evenings often find Manual lighted up and teeming with life. Deserving students who have built up an accumulation of honor points from good grades and participation in school affairs are elected to honoraries. The epitome of such awards is membership in the EMTHS Chapter of National Honor Society.

'Roines' Initiates Top Flight Senior Boys

Roines, Manual's senior honorary for boys, concentrates on assisting underclassmen with their studies and helping freshmen adjust to high school. For their special project as service to Manual this year, the Roines boys set up a study hall for underclassmen. The idea of a study hall was initiated last year, and worked out so successfully that it was started again this year during the second six weeks. Every morning before school, one member was on hand to assist underclassmen with their problems. If the boys couldn't help the pupils, they referred them to some other authority who could. The main idea was to help them understand their assignments more thoroughly. At Christmas they built a huge evergreen wreath which they suspended over the windows above the main entrance of the building and lit up at night.

'Masoma' Honors Leading Senior Girls

Masomas serve. This is the purpose of the senior girls' honorary organization. Theirs is the job of aiding teachers and showing the freshmen around Manual, helping them to feel more at home on that first day of the new semester. Masoma girls visit each freshman Home Room and inform the girls as to what Masoma stands for and the requirements for membership. Masomas also serve at athletic banquets and teas, and sponsor parties for freshmen girls. Different department heads are guest speakers to acquaint the girls with the varied activities and services offered at Manual. Afterward games are played and refreshments are served. As one of their special projects this year, the Masoma girls publicized Sectional sportsmanship by making posters and distributing them.

Student Affairs Board Supports Activities

Student Affairs Board, Manual's student council group, is composed of representatives from all four classes. Members are chiefly concerned with the welfare of the student body and act as a link between the school administration and the students. Working closely with the Board is a council made up of one representative from each Home Room. This group helps the Board carry out its activities. Student Affairs Board regularly sponsors after-games and freshmen get-acquainted mixers. They worked together with Roines and Masoma in sponsoring the Pigskin Prom this year. The Board also supervises various all-school elections throughout the year. The group cooperated with The Booster in its safety campaign by setting up a police car-check. Special project again this year was an all-school Clean-Up Campaign.

National Honoraries Cite Actors, Journalists

Membership in National Thespians, honorary for students active in dramatics, is gained by an accumulation of points from public appearances, speaking, acting, or singing. Mr. Fred Bennett is sponsor of Manual's chapter, Number 1492, installed in 1955 during a state convention which met at Manual.

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for journalists who do outstanding work on school publications. To be eligible for membership, a student must be a junior or senior and have worked on a publication staff for at least a year. Manual's group, the Gretchen A. Kemp Chapter, is named for a former Publication Director, now a professor at Indiana University. Each year on English Honors Day Quill and Scroll presents Journalism awards.

THIRD ROW: Jan Small, Carolyn Ibaugh, Mary Hoeping, Carylon Pool, Kenny Scharfe, Steve Carmean, Michele Perkinson, Mary Winstead, Claudia Dailey.

Booster Office Hums With Activity All Day

Manual's weekly newspaper, The Booster, consistently wins All-American honor rating from the National Scholastic Press Association and "Medalists" from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. The publications office is always abuzz with the clatter of typewriters to keep our newspaper one of the "tops" in the nation. Included in special coverage of the year was the Safety Campaign, which The Booster sponsored for the second time. After taking sixth place in a national contest with last year's efforts, journalists this year had to come up with some really original ideas. A bumper strip in a red-printed Booster, a police car-safety check, and free brake adjustments by the auto shop were all a part of the campaign. Covering sports was especially exciting this year with our championship football team, our superb basketball season, and other sports highlights. Seniors with scholarships in mind found The Booster full of information about colleges, universities, and organizations offering grants.

Lanna Newman, correspondent to the Teen Star, Norva Lintecum, correspondent to the Indianapolis Times, and Paula Williams, correspondent to the Indianapolis News, confer about news releases.

News Goes to 'Press'

Getting the important Manual news to the three city newspapers is the job of the News Bureau. Each reporter is responsible in seeing that Manual is well represented "in print" in his assigned paper. Unusual academic activities, club meetings, and social events all are "news." Manualites are "on the go" continuously so there is always a story. These special correspondents send in articles written by other students as well as by themselves. Consequently, Teen Star by-lines are won by other publications staffers, and photographers Ronnie Cambridge and Bill Schmidt take pictures to illustrate these stories.

Ivian Staff Works Year 'Round to Tell 'Story'

The yearbook staff is appointed a year in advance of the book's publication. Plans and layouts for the 1959 Ivian were started at Indiana University in summer of 1958. Several editors, along with the Booster staffers, attended the High School Journalism Institute sessions for two weeks during July and August. An Auditorium is presented at the beginning of each Fall Semester to promote Ivian sales. After months of planning, taking and cropping hundreds of pictures, writing and rewriting copy to fit designated spaces, and working over layouts to tell the story of the school year, the '59 Ivian went to press in March. Yearbook staff's work ends with the annual John Henry Hop, this year on May 28, where subscribers pick up their books and spend a busy afternoon in the Cafeteria exchanging autographs with their friends.

Grease-Paint Addicts Fill Numerous 'Roles'

Manual pupils gain experience in "show business" by participating in plays and performances given by the school. Mask and Wig is the dramatics club which students may join at Manual. Various plays are produced throughout the school year. After one Mask and Wig play, a dance was held in the cafeteria. Behind all these performances is the Stage Crew. The members work with professional, modern equipment. These Manualites are the scenery makers, the electricians, and sound technicians of the programs. The Radio Speech Club broadcasts each morning before school over its own radio station, WMHS.

Master technicians behind the scenes at the Redskin Revue performances are Jim Jones, who has just doused the house lights; Larry Jones, preparing to pull the curtains; and Dave Tepee, awaiting the cue that indicates the performers on stage are ready for the show to begin. Stage crew was busy weeks before the Revue constructing scenery.

Clubs Add Fun as Members Practice Studies

Did you ever wonder if you'd like to be a teacher? The Future Teachers of America Club provides students with the opportunity of learning what it's like on the opposite side of the desk. Activities are planned to acquaint members with prominent persons in the Indianapolis schools and with educational requirements for teaching. Many sign up to be "cadet teachers" during their senior year.

The two language clubs at Manual are the Spanish Club and the newly formed Latin Club. The annual Christmas party of the Spanish Club has a true Spanish atmosphere with a gift-bearing pinata. The Latin Club, sponsored by Mrs. Nancy Mountjoy, investigate life in ancient Rome. These clubs aid in the study of these languages by giving a better picture of their use and development and the people to which they are or have been native.

YMCA-Sponsored Groups Promote Friendship

Hi-Y officers confer about plans for a coming meeting. Seated are John Garnet, treasurer; Steve Tressler, president. Standing are David Fagg, secretary; Jim Jones, vice-president; and Jerry Jensen, chaplain.

Selling derbies to Sectional-bound Redskins are Tri-Hi-Y members Betty Lester, Merrilyn Lindley, Julia Walker, Sandra Lohman, and Wanda Bailey. The girls set up shop in the Cafeteria each lunch period during Sectional week.

Participating in the Model United Nations each spring are members of Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y, clubs affiliated with the YMCA. Students are registered as delegates from the member nations. They meet in regular UN sessions in the Legislative Chambers at the State House dressed in costumes appropriate to their "native lands." Simulating United Nations business meetings, these delegates make speeches and debate current questions regarding our economic and foreign policies.

The purpose of Manual's Y groups is to foster Christian living and promote friendship. The Tri-Hi-Y sells Manual derbies to Sectional-bound fans as a money-making project to help defray expenses for the Model United Nations. Y-Teens plan a money-making project to send a delegate to summer camp at Merom Institute at Merom, Indiana. Last year, Darlena Wolf was sent to the camp on money made from a car wash, which the girls set up on a Saturday at a local filling station.

Y-Teens have concentrated this year on helping Freshmen become adjusted to high school. Shown here are the officers. Jackie Swatts, treasurer, Gwendolyn Swatts, president, and Jeannine Malling, program chairman.

Jr. Red Cross, FHA Learn While Serving

Everyone at Manual can say he is a member of the Junior Red Cross as all students contribute when the drive for funds takes place. However, Manual has an active Junior Red Cross Club which participates in the activities set up for such groups by the Indianapolis Red Cross Chapter. It is co-sponsored by Miss Virginia Edds and Miss Suzanne Barclay. One of its many interesting projects is the designing and making of table decorations for special occasion dinners at Veterans' Hospital.

To become a future homemaker is every girl's ambition. Supplementing the wide range of Home Economics courses at Manual is Future Homemakers of America, sponsored by Mrs. Rovene Yeager. Their purpose is to learn better living habits in order to live better tomorrow and be better homemakers. Main projects for each club member are to improve herself socially and be of service to others.

Having a tea in the Social Practice Room are members of the Future Homemakers of America Club. They are Carol Fuchs, Linda Claiborne, Caroline Moorhead, Charlene Hodges, Mrs. Rovene Yeager, sponsor, Gwendolyn Swatts, Donna Weidner, and Janet Carnes.

Several musical opportunities are offered to Manual pupils who like to sing. The beginning student first takes chorus, and from there works up to one of the two main performing vocal groups, the Girls Glee Club or the Choir. Both organizations have smaller select groups, Ensemble from Choir and Glee-ettes from Glee Club, which perform for civic and school functions. The Glee Club sings for various school programs and annually gives a concert with the Band. One of the Glee-ettes' top performances was a parody on "Charley Brown" for the Booster's Safety Campaign Program. The Choir does an annual operetta and sings for Baccalaureate. Both groups also appear on "Young America Sings" and contribute to the Christmas Caroling on Monument Circle during the Yule Season.

Manual Band Plays For Concerts, Dances

The Manual Band, under Director William Kleyla, performs for various school functions during the year. Outstanding half-time shows highlight the football games as the Redskin marchers show off their championship form. After a strenuous semester of hard marching the Band turns to the concert side of playing. With 71 members comprising the concert band they give their annual concert, perform at an all-school auditorium, and play in the ISMA all-state playing contest. While this is going on selected members of the Band give of their time in participating in the Dance Band and Pep Band.

Orchestra ‘Symphonizes’ with Classics

Stringed instruments such as the cello, the bass, the viola, and the violin, which cannot be used in the Band, play an important part in Manual's Orchestra. Shortly after school starts in the fall, the Orchestra begins work on scores for the Operetta and becomes a "pit orchestra" for the occasion. With constant practice, perseverance, and the expert guidance of Miss Margaret Warner, Manual's Orchestra members constantly improve. They have been rewarded for their hard work by winning a first division for the past two years in the Indianapolis Band and Orchestra Contest. Every year Indianapolis elementary and secondary schools participate in this event. The bands and orchestras are required to play three selections, one of which is chosen by the musical authorities, and are judged on tone quality, intonation, blending, stage presentation, and bowing.

The Girls' String Ensemble, Gloria Harvey, Anne Norcross, Kay Kleifgen, Sharon Hare, and Sandra Hoffman, play for many outside school affairs.

Department Groups Put Learning to Use,

Citizens League helps students become better informed on government and foreign policy. Shown here are Norva Linteeum and Elaine Mills (seated), Jim Jones, Mary Beeman, Paula Carrier, Ruthann Carrier, and Agris Petersen.

Members of the Manual Citizens League, new this year, are interested in learning more about the functions of the government and the political scene. In November they visited the Beech Grove Magistrate Court to observe the questioning and sentencing of traffic violators. They also conducted an all-school election on regular election day for city, state, and national officers. In January they attended meetings of the Indiana State Legislature, accompanied by their sponsors, Mr. Roland Hawkins and Mr. John Krueger.

The Industrial Arts Club is made up of boys who are Industrial Arts majors. Sponsored by Mr. Victor McDowell, the club was responsible for selling the Manual plaques for cars. They, in cooperation with the Auto Shop, conducted our free brake adjustments for the Booster Safety Campaign. They had planned to run the free brake adjustment service for one week, but so many requests were made that they ran over a second week.

There are those students who enjoy math. Sponsor of the Math Club, Mrs. Jennie Howe, always plans to have some sort of mathematical problem for the members to work on at each meeting over and above what they would get in class. The club made several field trips during the year to industries where math is a big factor, like RCA, Indiana National Bank, and Indianapolis Power and Light Company.

Members of Manual's Science Honor Club, sponsored by Mr. Robert Canner and Mr. Wayne Dunbar, are interested in learning more space travel and nuclear energy. Mr. Robert Kryter, consulting engineer, spoke to them on "Rockets and Guided Missiles." Members attended a discussion at the Indianapolis Public Library by scientists from local industries; their theme, "Nuclear Energy in Indianapolis."

Athletics 'Round The Clock

Throughout the school day "good sports" are to be found on the gym floor or field busily engaged in class activities; and our full program of varsity and intra-mural sports carries through the seasons. Cross country, wrestling, track, golf, and baseball provide after-school competition for boys of all sizes. Night football in the fall and basketball through the winter have a tremendous following of both student and adult fans, as many of our parents and alums join us in support of our rugged Redskins. And what a year this has been!

Gym 'Rocks 'Round the Clock' with Activity

Boys enrolled in gym classes often engage in a fast game of basketball, which helps to develop group and team spirit.

Mr. Alvin Romciser, boys' gym instructor, includes calisthenics in his physical and mental health program to help build strong bodies.

Boys', Girls' Classes Meet Throughout the Day

During the school day our large gym is divided by a wood partition, which folds back accordion-style into the wall for basketball games. West end is for boys gym classes and east end, for girls.

Boys enrolled in gym have a chance to try for the Decathlon award. They receive points from mastering such things as skills on apparatus, coordination in exercises, and proficiency in sports. Boys after-school intra-murals, basketball, and bowling, are sponsored by Mr. Gene Harvey.

Directed by Miss Theo Parr and Miss Elena Raglin, girls' activities run with the seasons—outdoors in the fall for kickball, inside for exercises during the winter, and out again for softball come spring. Girls' many intra-murals are continuous.

Following the Hoola-Hoop craze are Barbara Weddle, Sandy Church, Julia McGraw, and Frances Neal.

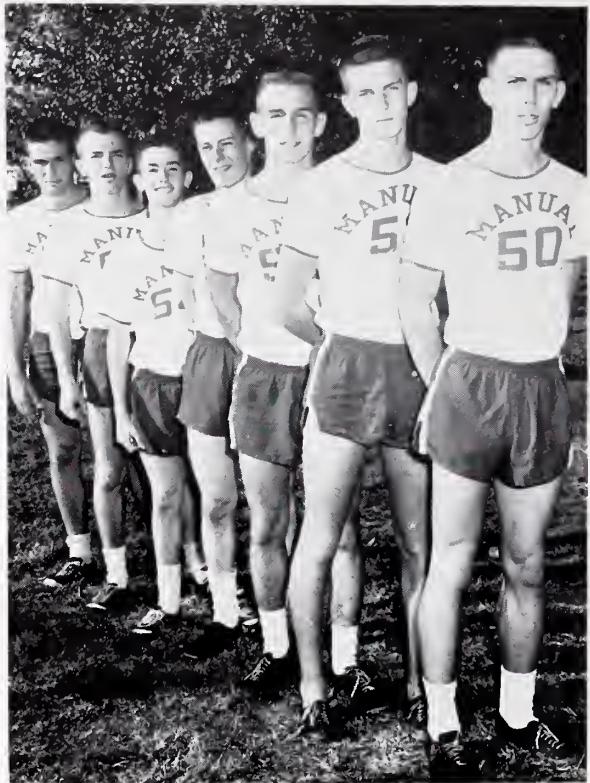

Taking advantage of an Indian summer day, Miss Parr referees a game of kickball on the practice field for a gym class.

Harriers Hurry for 8-4 Season, New Record Set

Manual's varsity thinly clad ended their season with an 8-4 record, and placed 11th in the South Grove Sectional. Senior Larry Chastain set a new school record of 10:51, bettering Bob Snoddy's time from the year before of 10:52. After the first two meets the harriers were 3-3, losing to Southport and to North Central twice, while downing Washington, Lawrence Central, and Broad Ripple.

Harriers jumped their record to 5-3 downing Martinsville and Vincennes, the scores being 25-40-68, respectively. Running on the home course, the varsity defeated Cathedral and Wood for a 7-3 stand. Manual then placed third in the Columbus Invitational and ninth in the Howe meet. In the City meet, which was held at South Grove, the harriers placed fourth. In the final week of action, they defeated Warren Central 17-46, and fell to Howe 21-34. Manual's reserve harriers won the City meet this year led by Bob Howell. Bob's fifth place finish earned him a medal.

Grapplers, Seventh in State, as Andrews Stars

The grapplers of Manual closed out a successful season with a 7-5 record. The 'Skins placed third in the City, led by Bill Andrews, Jim Wray, and Ken Graves, who won in the 127-pound, 145-pound, and 175-pound divisions, respectively.

Bill Andrews won the State at 127 pounds, pinning Bob Bowen of Richmond. This makes Bill a three-time state champion, the only boy in the records to have accomplished this feat. Jim Mahan placed fourth to give Manual a 7th-place finish.

Manual placed second to Washington in the Sectional with a score of 75. Six members qualified for the Regionals, of which two competed in the State. Manual copped fifth position.

Bill Andrews, three times state champion, knows each move he is about to make as his expression shows.

Coach Francis Moriarty's varsity trackmen broke five records last season, two of which were all time records. Erv Bultman's high jump mark of 6'1½" was tops and the 880 relay team of Larry Hamner, Charles Derolf, Alan Foster, and Leon Harris, scored with a time of 1:35.6. The other three records were turned in by Ken Graves in the shot, pushing a 48'11¼" mark; Larry Hamner in the low hurdles, 21.4; and Montell Johnson in the pole vault, airing an 11'3" impression.

Ken Graves, Manual's shot put champ, exhibits form which won him a Sectional title with a heave of 48-11¾.

Trackmen Pile Up Five New Marks; Frosh 'Tops'

In the running events, Manual's best were turned in by Bob Snoddy and Larry Chastain in the 880, 2:07.2; Leon Harris, a 23 flat in the 220; and Larry Hamner, 16.6 in the high hurdles. The mile relay team—Bill Willsey, Charles Mercer, Bob Snoddy, and Larry Chastain—turned in the Redskins' best time of 3:49.7. Charles Derolf broad-jumped 20' for the ovalmen's best in the field events.

In the Sectional, the 'Skins placed Ken Graves and John Stafford in the shot; Derolf, Hamner, Foster, and Harris in the half-mile relay; and Montell Johnson in the pole vault, resulting in Manual's winning third. Besides placing high in the Sectional and Regional, shot-putter Ken Graves earned a third place in the State meet. Coach Noah Ellis' frosh were unbeaten in track last season. They owned an 8-0 record, besides capturing the City title.

Montell Johnson clears the bar at 11-3, tops in the pole vault division, to win the city championship.

FRESHMEN TRACK—FRONT ROW: Chuck Creasey, Bob Skaggs, Roy McCubbins, Billy Snead, Eldon McKinney, Larry Sexton, Jim Peters, Dick Cochran, Coach Noah Ellis. # Rainy Days Slow Diamond Play to 7-8 Season

Coach Woody McBride's '58 diamondmen wound up the season with an impressive 7-8 record. The first few weeks of the baseballers' season had the Redskins owning a string of six wins and only three defeats and in contention for the city title. Due to postponements forced on by rain, the squad played its last six games in one week. Of the six clashes, Manual lost five straight matches to Scecina, Broad Ripple, North Central, and two to Howe. In the final game, Manual added the seventh win of the season by downing the Continentals of Washington. Decisive victories for Manual were over Warren Central, 5-2; Sacred Heart, 9-3; Crispus Attucks, 17-8; and Southport, 5-1.

The offensive half of our diamondmen showed Steve Wright and Norm Weddle topping the list for batting power. The 'Skins attempted 48 stolen bases and were successful in 43, with Dave Miller considered one of the finest base runners in the city. Vasco Walton hit the only homer of the year, as Manual downed Southport for the fourth win of the season.

Steve Wright at the pitchers mound was the leading hurler for the Redskins, winning six and losing four games. Key fielders for the 'Skins were Bill Hair, Ron Wood, and Dave Richards.

Eight Returnee Golfers Bolster Team

Manual golfers, tutored by Coach Oral Bridgford, ended the fall season with a 2-1 record and a seventh place showing in the City-County Fall Golf Tourney at the Riverside Golf Course. Junior Dick Lucas and Senior Morrie Metzger posted season lows in this meet with 77 and 78, respectively. In last spring's action the golfers supported a respectable 10-6 showing. They missed the state finals by only nine strokes, and placed 11th in the Sectionals at the Coffin Golf Course. Joe Bailey paced the teemen in this meet with a 77 and Metzger posted a 79.

Having lost only one boy from last year's squad, Bailey, who was, however, the best golfer on the team, hopes of improving last year's record look good. Members back from last year's squad are: Metzger, Lucas, Jerry Towe, John Most, Dave Moore, Steve Hoffman, Jim Roberson, and Don Riggan.

'Marvelous Manual,' as Reporters Dubbed Us,

This was truly Manual's year on the Indianapolis High School gridiron! Manual's Redskins dominated all statistics as they compiled a 10-0 record. The 'Skins won the City Championship, defeating Cathedral's Irish 35-0, in the final game of the season. After the game a huge bonfire on the practice field east of the parking lot honored our great team and our coaches, Boss Noah Ellis, and Assistants Jack Johns and "Mo" Moriarty. Several sports-writers named Manual as "state title holder."

Manual far exceeded the old record of 314 points held by Washington, as they exploded for 442 during this year's campaign. Manual's Quarterback Steve Wright threw 21 touchdown passes for another record. He completed 53 of 90 for 889 yards, and a 65% average. Manual had the city's two leading scorers in Leon Harris with 124 points and Dave Miller with 109. Nine members of the team gained berths on the Indianapolis Newspapers' All-City Teams, the most any school has ever had. 'Skins on the teams include Steve Wright, Dave Miller, Alan Foster, Leon Harris, Keith Nave, John Stafford, Jim Mahan, Dennis Jackson, and Ray Schultz. Also gaining All-American recognition were John Stafford, and Steve Wright. Steve was voted Manual's most valuable player.

Manual started the season off with a smashing victory over Sacred Heart 61-6. The Redskin's avenged last years 12-0 loss to Washington by downing the Continentals 55-0. Manual showed that they were really the team to beat as the Redskin Express traveled to the Tech field to play Howe, which was added to the long line of scalps 26-0. The Redmen out-hustled Warren Central 42-0.

Wins City Title, Shatters All Records

The home crowd fans, which numbered 8,000 for Homecoming, saw Manual roll up a 26-12 victory over Southport, our arch rival from the South. Southport was undefeated in its previous five games. Ben Davis was no match for the talented gridders from Manual as they were dropped by the Ellismen 68-7. After sending the Rockets from Ripple to the moon 54-7, Manual romped over our oldest rival, Shortridge, 34-0. Another overflow crowd exceeding 7,000 saw the 'Skins roll over previously unbeaten Huntington, 41-6. The final game of the season brought Manual its City Title as we dumped Cathedral 35-0, at the CYO field. Student fans who went to the game by chartered bus, really let Indianapolis know we had won as we returned 'cross town to our victory celebration.

All-City End Keith Nave pulls an aerial down for another first and ten for the Redskins.

Flames crackled to match the spirit of the Redskin fans at the big bonfire the night we took "the City."

Ray Schultz, another all-city end, catches one of Steve Wright's touchdown passes for six points. Steve was the all-city quarterback.

Record Stands Out as All-Time Best

Manual   Opponent

Manual	Opponent	Score
61	Sacred Heart	6
55	Washington	0
26	Howe	0
42	Warren Central	0
26	Southport	12
68	Ben Davis	7
54	Broad Ripple	7
34	Shortridge	0
41	Huntington	6
35	Cathedral	0

Losing ten of eleven starters from this year's squad will present Coach Noah Ellis with quite a rebuilding job. It's dreaming a bit to hope for such a wonderful team again next year. But with such standouts as "Butch" Kleppe and Dick Foran on defense and backs like Norm Bullard and Dave Scheib, our chances to repeat as City Champion seem mighty good. It would be hard to predict the future, so we'll just wait and see what next season has in store for us.

Steve Wright connects to Ray Schultz for a sizable gain, as the Manual front line stymies would-be Shortridge tacklers.

Leon Harris, power-packed halfback, grinds out the extra yardage needed for a sustained downfield drive.

Al Foster, all-city fullback, plunges through the line getting a first and ten against the Blue Devils.

Young 'Skins Show Promise for Bright Future

Under the guidance of Coach Jack Johns, Manual's talented reserves finished their season with a fine 4-2 record. Even though this did not win them the city title, they still downed some big teams and showed strength. With the quarterbacking of Dave Scheib and a fine backfield, these gridders will provide Coach Ellis with some fine new material for 1959.

Manual's freshman football team, under the direction of Coach Lou Parnell, ended the season with a split-even 4-4 record. Although not as successful as freshman teams in the past, this crop of "frosh" showed signs of real talent in downing some tough schools. Chuck Dennison, Dale Johnson, Ron Stacy, Jim Wheeler, and Dave Whitson made up a strong backfield.

Cheer Squads Back Teams with Enthusiasm

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS—Seniors on the squad were Sonja Keating and Judy Schoenherr. Juniors, Alan Hedges, Cookie Ibaugh, and Sandie Steele. Yellsters led cheers and brought enthusiasm to all athletic contests.

During both football and basketball seasons, Manual's cheerleaders are always busy. They, along with the Band, Pep Band, and Pep Club, help boost the team and rouse the spectators' interest in the stadium or gym. Manual cheersters are chosen in the spring and practice throughout the summer and following year. Cheerleaders are judged by appearance, personality, and ability to perform.

Much thought, planning, and practicing go into preparations for the two seasons' games and pep sessions. The reserve and varsity squads and Sponsor Mrs. Thelma Morgan attended an annual cheerleading conference at Indiana University last fall. The freshman, reserve, and varsity cheerleaders are honored, along with the teams, at the all-sports banquet and on Athletic Awards Day.

'Big' Redskins Thrill Fans with 17 Wins

Redskin roundballers, under Coach Dick Cummins, compiled their "best" all-time record winning 17 of 23 contests. Starting off with two wins over Cathedral and Sacred Heart and a loss to Terre Haute Gerstmeyer, the 'Skins then took a double overtime from Ben Davis, 49-47, giving Manual fans a preview of the exciting season ahead. After traveling to New Albany to chalk up a victory, the Redskins downed Howe in the first game of the City Tourney. The Cummins men then ran into 3rd-ranked Shortridge, and although they fought it all the way, they lost in the final seconds 45-43. Bright spot for us came when Ron Miller and Tom and Dick Van Arsdale made the Indianapolis papers' All-City Tourney teams. After a short holiday the Redmen launched Broad Ripple's Rockets but were downed by a slim four point margin by the Attucks Tigers. Downing Columbus the 'Skins were then upset by Tech.

Ray Schultz snags a rebound from the Greenfield Tigers as Dick Van Arsdale and Ron Miller wait to help.

Down Shortridge, 'Team to Beat,' for High Spot

An eight game winning streak saw Washington, North Central, Greenfield, Wood, Warren Central, Shortridge, Howe, and Seccina lose their scalps to the Redskins. Downing Shortridge was a high spot of the season. The team went all out in winning, 60-58. Regular games ended with a disappointing 55-51 loss to rival Southport. The 'Skins were favorites in the newly created Southport Sectional and lived up to expectations their first two games trouncing Beech Grove and Fortville. Then a damper was put on planned celebrations as Southport sneaked by in a 43-41 overtime victory.

Coach Woody McBride's reserve team showed promise for the future, chalking up a 15-4 season record. Larry Short and Jim Cummings were registered as reserves for the Sectional. The B's only defeats came at the hands of Terre Haute Gerstmeyer, Ben Davis, New Albany, and Broad Ripple. After the loss to Broad Ripple in the City Tourney the reserves went on to finish the season, winning 13 games. The Freshmen basketball team also turned in a winning season with a 9-5 mark. Coach Harold Bennett had one of the hottest freshmen in town in little Leon Carter who carried a 16-point average.

Dick Van Arsdale goes up and over the crowd, scoring a two-pointer against Seccina's Crusaders.

Keith Nave and Dick Van Arsdale jump high to try the tip-in as Dick Foran waits a possible rebound.

'All the Comforts of Home'—Food, No Wraps

Services to basketball fans were performed by the Dads Club and the Band with their refreshment stand and coat check rooms. Mr. George Coldren sells food to hungry Redskins, and Becky Koenig, Jeannie Chappel, and Lydia Brasher man the check room.

Just before the end of each reserve game, the Pep Band ran around the floor to take seats reserved for them in the section next to the Pep Club. Dressed in white shirts, dark trousers, and bright red caps, they stirred up plenty of enthusiasm with their gay music and tomtom rhythms. They also added their lusty voices and drums to many of the Pep Club's routines.

Manualites 'Round The Clock

Since we spend many of our waking hours right here at Manual, many of our fellow students and teachers become our best pals or friends. It's nice to have pictures of our friends and daily companions, we may even feel at times "fellow-sufferers," to dream over during spare time. And in years to come, 'twill be good to look back on this album section of the 1959 Ivian to recall good times and cherished friendships. Students passed the 1850 mark this year, and faculty numbered more than a hundred. Quite a family!

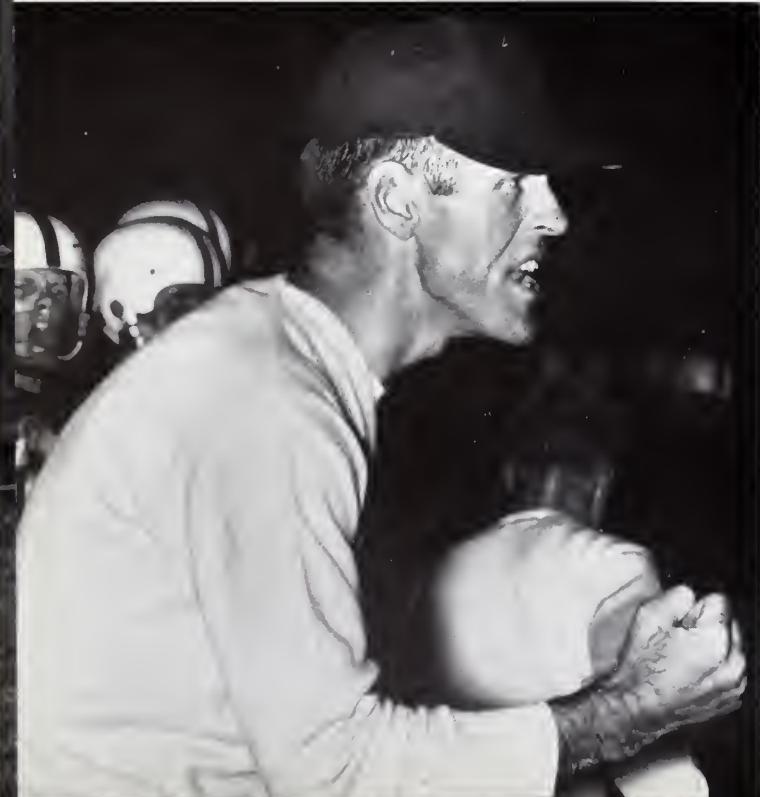

Principal C. Edgar Stahl confers with his secretary Mrs. Mary J. Spiegel in his office. Mrs. Spiegel has been "girl Friday" to Manual principals since 1915.

Classes, Conferences Keep Teachers on the Go

The Man of the Hour, at least during football season, Coach Noah Ellis strikes a familiar pose as he yells the winning Manual football team on to another victory.

Time goes fast for our faculty because they are always on the go. Each of our 102 teachers has classes to prepare for, homework to grade, as well as outside "lives" and activities.

Sponsoring clubs, counseling students, giving extra help during conference period, and attending departmental meetings, school productions, and school social functions are activities that fill numerous hours for teachers. Many guide practice teachers from various Indiana colleges, work with our own cadet teachers, and put up with unprepared lessons but still keep their equilibrium.

The Redskin Revue took up extra time for Mr. Wayne Dunbar, Miss Delinda Reeves, Mr. Roland Hawkins, Miss Phyllis Greve, Miss Judy Rodman, Mr. John Krueger, Mr. Millard Arnold, and Miss Kathy Weiland, who were faculty act sponsors.

Class of '59 Uses Motto - 'To Better Our Best'

Senior Class Officers discuss plans for a meeting during Home Room. Officers for '59 are Steve Wright, vice-president; Sharon Lahrman, secretary; Anne Norcross, president; and Dave Richards, treasurer.

Selecting the motto "Constantly Striving to Better our Best," the class of '59 sailed through the school year, exploding with plans, projects, and parties. First on the agenda was Senior Day on October 22 during which seniors dressed in Sunday best and sported red and white armbands. Seniors proved they were capable of "taking over" school offices on November 12 when the second annual Student-Teacher Turnabout Day was launched.

Playing Santa for the frosh at the annual Christmas party December 18 was another project. To honor Manual's faculty, seniors sponsored a Valentine's Tea in the home economics social room, preparing refreshments, serving guests, and tidying up afterward. In May, seniors joined forces to stage the play "Ten Little Indians." Climaxing senior activities is the big day in every senior's life—graduation, followed by the senior prom.

Senior Council, representatives from each Senior Home Room, serve as sub-treasurers to assist in the collection of dues and the distribution of official notices. Here they discuss the senior class gift with Treasurer Dave Richards. Council members are Judy Schoenherr, Dennis Jackson, Bob Brock, Nancy Day, Larry Henn, Lois Rechenbach, and Dave Miller.

Largest-Ever Junior Class Records 'Big' Year

Presiding officers for the Junior Class are Charles Mercer, Treasurer; Bonnie Graves, Vice-President; Mitzi Muse, Secretary; Larry Hall, President.

Junior Class members elect officers and start making their plans early in fall. Nominations are made in all Junior home rooms and a ballot election is used. Officers work in council with Mr. J. Ray Johnson, class sponsor, on all class business. A traditional project of the Juniors is to buy and trim the Christmas tree for the main hall. This year's Juniors chose an all white tree with red lights, and it was trimmed at a party after school. The next big day for Juniors was "their" day, February 25. Junior Day is observed each year. Class members don best apparel and a red or white carnation. After school at a program in the auditorium Top Ten Juniors, chosen on scholarship and activities, are announced. A dance in the cafeteria follows. In the spring comes the Junior Prom. May 1 at Atherton Center, Butler University, a large number of Juniors attended the dance, "Hawaiian Holiday."

Advertising

As future leaders and homemakers of this community, we Manualites are already looking for the best places to shop and the best products and services to buy. Ivian advertisers are getting in their bid for our patronage by supporting our school and our yearbook for they know that Redskins and their families are good customers. Every year several hundred Manual graduates settle down right here as consumers in the business world. Since these ads have been posed by our fellow students, they are doubly interesting to us.

Time flies so fast—another school year has ended. For The Ivian staff—a year of toil—meeting deadlines—running to the printers—pasting proofs—OK-ing copy—We can't believe that it's really finished. Many students will be back next year; but others of us must say good-by to classes, friends, sub-zero football bouts, thrill-packed basketball games, dances, noisy lunch hours, quiet study halls, and the other good times that make our high school days memorable—and it's all recorded for you between these covers.
